

EVENT CODE OF CONDUCT

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA-LINCOLN

Your participation in a University event carries the responsibility of representing the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. You are expected to conduct yourself in a manner that reflects well on yourself. Your contribution to the event is as important as what you receive from the event.

1. You are expected to attend all sessions that are a part of the planned program. Inform the event staff if you are not feeling well or have a schedule change.
2. Observe hours established by the staff and be in your room. Boys are not allowed in girls' rooms nor girls allowed in boys' rooms.
3. Participants are not to leave the assigned program area at any time except as a part of the planned program.
4. No smoking.
5. Participants will not use alcohol or drugs (except those prescribed by a doctor).
6. Avoid unnecessary roughness toward room furnishings, furniture, equipment, etc. Occupants of a room are responsible for any damage or misconduct.
7. Telephones are at the convenience of the participants. Any misuse will result in the removal of the phone.
8. Interaction among all members of the group is encouraged but not exclusively with another person. Kissing and other sexual displays of personal affection are in poor taste and will not be tolerated.
9. No visitors will be allowed without the approval of the event staff.
10. Participants are expected to respect, listen and abide by the rules set by the event staff.

VIOLATORS MAY EXPECT:

1. To have the opportunity to explain actions to the event staff in charge.
2. Violation may result in dismissal and being sent home at parental expense. Offenders will be sent home immediately.

Guardian certifies that he/she is of lawful age and legally competent to sign this affirmation and release and that he/she understands that the terms contained herein and contractual and not mere recitals.
